BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE UNIT / RESEARCH GROUP

The Institute of Humanities (IH) was formed in 2014 on the basis of the Institute of Applied Linguistics of Peter the Great St. Petersburg Polytechnic University. The Institute provides Russian and foreign language education and humanities disciplines for the whole Polytechnic University. The FSZ was founded in 1989 to provide language courses and services to students of all disciplines at the Leibniz Universität Hannover. The cooperation was finished in 2018.

WHAT WE OFFER / PROJECT DESCRIPTION

We develop a trilingual internet platform that aims to provide an online resource for academic writing in technical subjects based on technical text corpora. The platform is continuously developed as part of research-and-development-based language courses.
