How can I contact uni-assist?

Please use the contact form on <https://www.uni-assist.de/en/contact/> or call during telephone hours: +49 30 201 646 001 (Monday through Friday, 9 AM to 3 PM (UTC+1/UTC+2))

What happens after the application?

Uni-assist checks your documents according to regulations set down by the Zentralstelle für ausländisches Bildungswesen (ZAB), which you can review on www.anabin.kmk.org. Additionally, they check whether your application complies with the formal criteria for application that Leibniz University of Hannover has set down.

If your application meets these requirements, uni-assist will inform you about it and will forward your application to Leibniz University of Hannover. For study courses with restricted admission, Leibniz University of Hannover will then conduct a selection process on the basis of average grades. For Master's degree study courses, the faculty's admission committee will decide whether your previous studies are suitable to the desired study course. In the end, the university will send you a formal letter of admission or rejection. A letter of admission is valid for the respective semester only.

If your application does not meet the requirements, it is rejected directly by uni-assist.

Checklist for Application to Leibniz University of Hannover via uni-assist

Dear applicant,

We are pleased about your interest in studying at the Leibniz University Hannover. Below you can check the steps that are necessary for the application. You can access detailed information regarding the application process on our website (Bachelor Non-EU / Master Non-EU)

1. Before the Application

- I checked the application deadline for my degree programme here and am applying within the application period.
- I chose the correct application portal (direct application at Leibniz University of Hannover or application via uni-assist).
- I am aware that applications that arrive after the deadline will not be processed.

2. Application

- I have created an account on the uni-assist application web page <https://my.uni-assist.de/>.
- I have given my applicants' data and information about my previous education.
- I have chosen Leibniz University of Hannover and created an online application for my desired programme(s).
- I have correctly and distinctly named all required documents in German or English and uploaded them as pdf files.
- I know that the application is exclusively online. Sending documents by post is not necessary.
- I am aware that incomplete applications will not be processed.

3. After the Application

Even though it has not been necessary to send certified hard copies by post since winter semester 2021, Leibniz University Hannover reserves the right to request certified hard copies in individual cases.

- I prepared certified copies in case they are requested.

Uni-assist will forward all applications that are complete to Leibniz Universität Hannover where they will be processed further.

- I regularly check the status of my application via the online application portal. I use my application number and token as login data. Leibniz University of Hannover will send me my token automatically via email by the end of the application period at the latest. Until then, I wait patiently and refrain from making enquiries about this.

You can find more information about what happens after the application on our website.

4. Any more Questions?

If you have further questions regarding the online application, feel free to write an e-mail to studium@uni-hannover.de
